The sudden orders for the convening of the army board came as a er, and will alter his private plans to a considerable extent. An order has ust been issued from Department headquarters, granting General Mahaving the approval of the Division commander, and now comes the War Department order naming the general as presiding officer of the defense board to meet the last day of the present month. This means that General Macomb's trip to the Coast will have to be postponed.

Departmental Complications. As yet nothing official has been received at army headquarters, but none of the muitary higher-ups question the reliability of the Associated Press dispatch, and they are making their plans accordingly.
